Cairt Leabharlainne

We, the members and organisers of the Carntogher Community Library, establish this charter to outline the shared responsibilities, goals, and values that shall govern the operations and conduct of our community library.
Purpose and Mission	The purpose of the Carntogher Community Library is to provide a welcoming and inclusive space that aims to provide a love for reading, learning our native language and recognising that there are many resources available as Gaeilge. Our mission is to empower individuals of all ages to access the resources that are available in Irish.
Responsibilities of the Community Organization	As the organizing body of Carntogher Community Library we commit to the following responsibilities:
	Collection Development: • We will curate a diverse and up-to-date collection of books, and resources that cater to the interests and needs of our community • Ensure our library environment and resources are maintained at a high standard and any problems are reported in a timely manner Programs and Events: • We will organize educational and cultural events that engage with our members. Members • Treat all users with dignity and respect, valuing them as equal members of the Carntogher Community Library • Provide a friendly, professional service to support the learning and research needs of our user community • Provide reasonable adjustments and support to accommodate specific learning needs.
Responsibilities of the Members	As members of the Carntogher Community Library, we agree to fulfil the following responsibilities
	We will treat fellow members, staff, and library property with respect: Library Materials • We will borrow and return library materials promptly and in good condition, respecting due dates. Contribution to Community • We are encouraged to contribute to the library's community spirit by participating in library events, volunteering, and offering suggestions for improvement Feedback • We will provide feedback and suggestions to help the library better serve the community.
